

Accident Prevention Awards Program

- Chief of Staff, Army, Army Headquarters Safety Award
- Chief of Staff, Army Exceptional Organization Safety Award
- Chief of Staff, Army Individual Award of Excellence in Safety
- Director of Army Safety, Composite Risk Management Award
- Sergeant Major of the Army, Soldier Safety Award
- United States Army Guardian Award
- United States Army Aviation Broken Wing Award
- Army Accident Prevention Award of Accomplishment
- United States Army Aircrew member Safety Award

Motivating the Army by recognition and promotion.

- Promotes pro-active CRM
- Publicizes best practices
- Breeds future successes

Program Overview

The renovated awards program features positive measurements of current Army goals, improved plaques and certificates, and streamlined submission procedures. The program allows organizations to develop additional awards that are tailored to meet their unique accident prevention and safety recognition goals. The new program is designed to recognize, promote and motivate success in accident prevention.

Key Points

- Director of Army Safety Message (ALARACT 069/2006, dated 30 MAR 06) changed the Army Accident Prevention Awards Program.
- These policy changes will be incorporated into a consolidated update of existing safety regulations.

Specific Changes

- Revised the Chief of Staff, Army, MACOM Safety Award; changing the name to “Chief of Staff, Army, Army Headquarters Safety Award.
- The Chief of Staff, Army Exceptional Organization Safety Award replaces the Director of Army Safety Award which was given for a 3% reduction in loss rates.

Specific Changes

- Revised Chief of Staff, Army, Award of Excellence in Safety: Changed the name to the Individual Award of Excellence in Safety.
- Replaced the Director of Army Safety Special Award of Excellence with the Director of Army Safety, Composite Risk Management Award.
- Revised the Army Accident Prevention Award of Accomplishment.

Specific Changes

- Revised the United States Army Guardian Award and The United States Army Aviation Broken Wing Award to reduce endorsement requirements to the first O-6 in the chain of command.
- Includes the Sergeant Major of the Army Soldier Safety Award.
- Deleted the United States Army Motor Vehicle Driver Safety Award.

Chief of Staff, Army, Army Headquarters Safety Award, Chief of Staff, Army, Exceptional Organization Safety Award and The Chief of Staff, Army, Individual Award of Excellence in Safety.

Director of Army Safety Composite Risk Management Award.

United States Army Guardian Award.

Army Aviation Broken Wing Award

Sergeant Major of the Army Superior Soldier Safety Award

Army Accident Prevention Award of Accomplishment

Recipients: TOE or TDA

detachments; company-size units, battalions or equivalent; brigades or equivalent; and divisions, installations, or activities.

Eligibility requirements: A organization must complete 12 consecutive months, a major training exercise or complete an actual deployment of greater than 120 days without experiencing a class A, B, or C accident (accident classes as defined in AR 385-40) attributable to human error.

Initiator: Organization commander or manager, or organization safety manager.

United States Army Aircrew Member Safety Award

Recipients: U.S. Army military personnel, DA civilian, and Army contracted employees who perform aerial flights as aircrew members.

Eligibility requirements: A nominee must complete at least 500 flight hours as an aircrew member in U.S. Army aircraft without having a contributing role in a human-factor-related class A, B, or C aviation accident (accident classes as defined in AR 385-40).

Initiator: Organization commander or representative.

Unit Impact Awards

Purpose: Impact awards support the safety strategy of the Army to enhance mission readiness through risk reduction and management. Awards should highlight safety related information that supports the organization's safety mission.

Policy: Commanders are encouraged to develop and issue policies for Safety Impact Awards to promote safety awareness through on-the-spot recognition of safety related actions which are above and beyond what is required of an individual or organization and would normally go unnoticed.

Other Awards

- Leaders are encouraged to develop awards that recognize the accident prevention accomplishments and safe performance displayed by individuals within their organization.
- Leaders may use the DA Form 1119-1 or are authorized to design and use locally produced certificates or trophies in place of the DA Form 1119-1. Awards will be signed by the organization's leader and will include, at a minimum, the awardee's name and the contribution for which the award is given.